

Yeshiva University stands at the educational, intellectual and spiritual epicenter of a robust movement, rooted in Jewish thought and tradition, dedicated to promoting the moral and material betterment of both the Jewish community and the broader world. The undergraduate schools offer a unique dual curriculum comprising Jewish studies and liberal arts and sciences courses, and our graduate and affiliate schools offer tremendous opportunities for graduate and professional studies. While part of a multifaceted University community, each school retains the intimate character of a smaller institution.

About the Shevet Glaubach Center for Career Strategy and Professional Development

The Shevet Glaubach Center (SGC) for Career Strategy and Professional Development offers a wide range of programs and resources to students and alumni. We have over 70,000 alumni in the YU family that are among the best in their fields supported by seven regional and international alumni communities. The mission of the SGC is to:

- Advise and empower students to think strategically in identifying their potential and passions, applying their talents, and making a difference in the world.
- Use evidence-based practices to drive a quality service approach with replicable and standardized experiences for all students.
- Serve as an alumni gateway for engagement to both create opportunities for current students to start impactful careers and to further the University's Mission.

Partnership Opportunities:

- SGC will provide a linked logo on our website with a small blurb on our employer relations and alumni section that clicks through to your website.
- SGC can feature the founder in an interview article for our bi-weekly newsletter going to all parents, faculty, students, and administrators (10,000 recipients; newsletters are archived as HTML on our website)
- SGC can have a click thru to your website in our newsletter reaching all of the aforementioned audiences.
- SGC can promote the company in a NACE post on the blog reaching every accredited college and university around the globe.
